TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

Invergarry Castle is situated in a most charming position on a green and rocky knoll near the shores of Loch Oich. It is in itself very picturesque, being in a state of ruin, in which condition it was left by "Butcher" Cumberland in 1746. The rock on which it is situated is known as "Creag-an-Fhithevich" (Rock of the Raven), and from this the Clan Macdonald have taken their war cry.
